

Acacia Helps Your Loved One to Live More Independently.

Acacia Adult Day Services is a non-profit organization in Orange County, California that provides daytime Adult Day Care and Adult Day Health Care programs to enable frail older adults to live more independently in their community.

For 30 years, Acacia has been a leader in improving and enhancing the lives of the elderly, persons with Alzheimer's disease and related types of dementia, the disabled and their families.

Established in 1979, Acacia Adult Day Services is a non-profit organization licensed through the California Department of Public Health and the Office on Aging.

The United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) and the California Department of Education's Nutrition Services Division (NSD) prohibit discrimination in all their programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, gender, religion, age, or disability.

To file a complaint of discrimination, write USDA, Director, Office of Civil Rights, Room 326-W, Whitten Building, 14th and Independence Avenue, SW, Washington DC 20250-9410 or call (202) 720-5964 (voice and TDD). The USDA and the NSD are equal opportunity providers and employers.

Acacia is funded in part through the Older Americans Act as allocated by the Orange County Board of Supervisors.
