

Independent Living at The Herrick House

Offering a Comprehensive Retirement Program and a Place to Call Home

The Herrick House offers independent retirement living that allows you or a family member to continue the lifestyle you want in a warm and supportive atmosphere without the worries of maintaining a home.

The North Shore's most trusted senior living community; The Herrick House is nestled in a beautiful and private wooded setting on the upper campus of Beverly Hospital. Its unique location offers easy access to physician, outpatient and 24/7 hospital services. As a member of Lahey Health and Lahey Health Continuing Care, The Herrick House staff can connect residents and families to a comprehensive range of healthcare services.

Within a short distance of The Herrick House one can find a wide variety of both casual and fine dining restaurants, pharmacies, theaters, galleries and stores. The Herrick House is also located close to beautiful parks, scenic trails and picturesque beaches, in addition to offering on-site walking paths.

The Herrick House's Independent Living Program is designed to provide stress-free living for the active senior, as well as peace of mind to family members, and includes:
